

Co-funded by the
Europe for Citizens Programme
of the European Union

10 major mistakes in proposal writing in the Europe for Citizens Programme

Co-funded by the
Europe for Citizens Programme
of the European Union

Too short information

Co-funded by the
Europe for Citizens Programme
of the European Union

Low relevance for the programme and target group

Co-funded by the
Europe for Citizens Programme
of the European Union

No European dimension

Co-funded by the
Europe for Citizens Programme
of the European Union

Wrong assumptions about the prior knowledge of evaluators

Co-funded by the
Europe for Citizens Programme
of the European Union

Wrong action

Co-funded by the
Europe for Citizens Programme
of the European Union

Contradictions

Co-funded by the
Europe for Citizens Programme
of the European Union

Lack of visibility and planning for the future

Co-funded by the
Europe for Citizens Programme
of the European Union

No active participation possibilities

Co-funded by the
Europe for Citizens Programme
of the European Union

Sport events are planned as nation battles

Co-funded by the
Europe for Citizens Programme
of the European Union

Only sightseeing

Co-funded by the
Europe for Citizens Programme
of the European Union

Tips:

- Write extensively
- Answer all questions (online application does not check quality)
- Own programme for young participants (if participating)
- Active participation possibilities (discussion, cultural activities)
- Mixed teams with sport events
- Visibility and planning for the future is important
- Preparation activities, involvement of local citizens
- Method mix
- Opinion from third person

Co-funded by the
Europe for Citizens Programme
of the European Union

Further information:

Verein Auxilium

Geidorfplatz 2

8010 Graz

Tel.: 0043(0)316-328044

Fax.: 0043(0)316-328027

Email: office@auxilium.co.at

Web: www.auxilium.co.at