KAYADER (Public Administration Academy Association) is a non-governmental organization founded in 2009. The Kayader is a non-profit organization, whose aim's gives training seminars to local governments in Turkey, training seminars on awareness raising, European Union and municipalism. As Kayader, we aim to build a bridge between the local governments of Turkey and the European Union, and to bring together 465 EU local governments and 50 local governments of Turkey, including 15 mayors and/or representatives from 33 countries from the European Union member and member candidate countries. We are preparing the "LOCAL GOVERNMENTS AND CIVILIZATION BRIDGE" project. Our project is a 1-year (12 months) project and the activity program will be 10.5 months. Within the scope of the activity program, every month, 45 local government mayors and/or representatives from 3 countries (at least 1 person from each country, maximum 3 people) will carry out both local municipality and cultural bridge tours in regions of Turkey with different cultures and civilizations.
